
1. Rewrite
Parents
Each Parent Item
Let P(n) be the number of distinct positive integers that can be obtained as the product of the numbers shown on n standard six-sided dice. If P(n)=550, what is the value of n?
rewrite
LLM
Children
...be obtained as the product of the numbers shown on n standard six-sided dice, such that the product is a perfect square. If P(n) = 550, what is the value of n?
..., such that the exponent of 2 exceeds the exponent of 3. ...
...on n standard six-sided dice, with adjacent outcomes coprime...
...on n eight-sided dice whose faces are the positive divisors of 24...
2. Annotate
Each Child Item
(a) Validity Check
(b) Response Collection
(c) Online Calibration
Item Difficulty
3. Update Memory
Memory $\mathcal{M}$
Target Difficulty
Other Items in Memory
Selected Parents
Selected References
Gap
Difficulty
Reference list
Nearby lower/higher items as local difficulty references
Parent
Items closest to target difficulty as rewriting seeds
Next Round